

Meeting Rules of Conduct

Applies to:

- Annual General Meeting (AGM)
- Native Title Meeting
- General Meeting of Members

Date: 31st October 2026

These are important meetings for Darumbal Native Title Holders and Members. A range of important matters will be considered and discussed, and it is essential that all members have the opportunity to participate in a respectful, safe and orderly environment.

The meetings are being held for the benefit of the Darumbal community, Native Title Holders and Members. Everyone attending has the right to feel safe, respected and able to listen, ask questions, contribute to discussions and exercise their rights as a member without being subjected to abuse, harassment, intimidation, threats, discrimination or personal attacks.

Accordingly, the following Meeting Rules of Conduct apply to ALL persons attending the AGM, Native Title Meeting and General Meetings of Members, including members, Native Title Holders, Directors, staff, invited guests, advisers and observers.

1. Every member attending the meeting has the right to be respected and treated in a culturally appropriate manner;
2. When a member is talking, show respect by listening – do not interrupt or talk over them;
3. Understand that other members may have different thoughts and ideas which should be respected;
4. No members or others at the meeting should be subjected to any abuse or harassment or threats of physical harm;
5. There shall be no vulgar, bad, or offensive language, personal attacks, or threatening behaviour towards anyone;
6. Every member is entitled to participate in the meeting. Nobody has the right to dominate the meeting;
7. Members must respect the Chairperson and any directions given by the Chairperson for the orderly conduct of the Meeting.
8. A decision of the Chairperson is final.

DPAC RNTBC

Darumbal People Aboriginal Corporation

9. For the efficient running of the meeting, the Chairperson may impose limitations upon the amount and number of times a member may speak on a topic.
10. Members in attendance must respect any professionals (such as accountants, auditors or lawyers or others) who have been invited to the meeting to deliver reports or give advice to those in attendance at the meeting.
11. Members or others affected by alcohol or other substances will be asked to leave the meeting;
12. Members who continually interrupt the meeting or disobey the lawful directions of the Chairperson will be asked to leave the meeting;
13. Members who are aggressive or threatening towards other members will be asked to leave the meeting;
14. Members who do not follow these meeting rules will be asked to leave the meeting;
15. Members refusing to leave the meeting when asked to do so should be aware that the police or security may be called.

Darumbal People Aboriginal Corporation RNTBC
18 Prospect Street, Allentown
PO Box 8581, Allentown QLD 4700

P 07 4921 2869
E admin@darumbal.com.au

ABN 93 624 893 443
ACN 624 893 443

Darumbal People Aboriginal Corporation Registered Native
Title Body Corporate is a non-profit organisation that acts on behalf of the Darumbal people.

